

Dr Amit Saha

AKC BSc MBBS MSc MA FRCP

NHS Practices

Maidstone Hospital and Tunbridge Wells Hospital, Pembury

Professional Profile

Dr Amit Saha trained as an undergraduate at King's College London where he completed his MBBS and BSc. He has had extensive training in all aspects of Rheumatology and General Internal Medicine. He trained at the professorial unit at King's College Hospital and at the Louise Coote Lupus unit at St Thomas'.

He has been awarded an MSc in Rheumatology (Distinction), an MA in Education and won a Bursary for his research based on measuring disease activity in Rheumatoid Arthritis. He is the Head of the Rheumatology department for Maidstone and Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust.

Special Interests

Inflammatory joint diseases (rheumatoid arthritis, spondyloarthropathies and psoriatic arthritis), Soft tissue rheumatology, Connective tissue diseases, Gout, Osteoporosis, Osteoarthritis, Fibromyalgia, Pain management, Back pain, Medical legal reports