

Mr Chan Jeer

MBBS (Lon) FRCS (Eng) FRCS (Tr & Orth)

NHS Practices

The Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother Hospital, Kent

Professional Profile

Mr Chan Jeer Specialises in Management of problems relating to the Knee.

He completed his undergraduate medical education in 1993 from the King's College Hospital School of Medicine and Dentistry. In 1997 he obtained his Fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons (England) and he completed his postgraduate surgery training on the South East Thames rotation culminating in him obtaining his FRCS (Trauma and Orthopaedics) in 2002.

Mr Jeer obtained sub specialist medical training via fellowships in Australia and Ireland. The Australian fellowship was at the Sportsmed Institute of Arthroplasty and Sports Medicine. Experience gained included specialist techniques in hip and knee surgery including computer navigated and minimally invasive surgery. Mr Jeer is also a Medico-Legal expert.

Special Interests

Surgery of the knee

