

Mr James Ritchie

FRCS (Tr&Orth)

NHS Practices

Maidstone & Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust, Kent

Professional Profile

Mr Ritchie qualified in Medicine in 1995 and undertook a Specialist Fellowship in Foot & Ankle Surgery at the Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital at Stanmore. He specialises in all aspects of foot and ankle problems in children and adults and treats patients from the Kent, Sussex and South East London area.

He is committed to teaching and runs the Foot & Ankle Section of the South East Thames Higher Surgical Training Programme and the Guy's Hospital Foot & Ankle Course. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons and an Executive Member of the British Orthopaedic Foot & Ankle Society.

Special Interests

Foot surgery, Ankle surgery and soft tissue injuries, Sports injuries, Children's foot and ankle problems, Bunion surgery, Ankle replacement, Minimally invasive foot and ankle surgery

