

Mr Paul Gill

MBBS FRCS (Eng) FRCS (TrandOrth)

NHS Practices

King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

Professional Profile

Mr Paul Gill studied medicine at St George's Hospital Medical School, London. He undertook orthopaedic specialist training on the South East Thames Training Programme which included placements at the London Teaching Hospitals of Guy's, St Thomas' and King's College Hospital.

He then completed a one year fellowship in knee and sports surgery at SPORTSMED.SA in Adelaide, Australia which included treatment of elite athletes. In 2002 he returned to England to take up his post as Consultant Orthopaedic and Knee Surgeon.

Mr Gill is an experienced Knee Surgeon undertaking all aspects of knee surgery with a particular emphasis on optimum rehabilitation; many knee conditions can be treated without the need for surgery.

He is widely published with a number of papers in peer reviewed journals.

Special Interests

Knee surgery

